Navratan Legend Award – 2016

Noida Entrepreneurs Association (NEA) has, over the past 35 years, emerged in Noida not only as a strong and organized body safeguarding the interests of entrepreneurs but also as a highly effective and powerful social organization serving the general public. NEA has carried out countless initiatives with commitment for every section of society. Whether during natural disasters or times of national crisis, NEA has always stood in the front line, ready to contribute.

For its entrepreneur members, NEA remains ever prepared to provide relief from governmental and administrative challenges.

For the economically weaker sections of society, NEA, in collaboration with the Bharat Vikas Parishad, has established a pathology lab within its own premises to provide healthcare services, where medical tests are conducted for just ₹10. Thousands of people from low-income groups are benefiting from this special initiative.

Along with promoting social, cultural, and literary programs, the auditorium built under your leadership has become a valuable gift to the people of Noida, helping to foster national awareness and consciousness.

NOIDA ENTREPRENEURS ASSOCIATION

In recognition of its wide-ranging, continuous, and impactful contributions toward socio-economic upliftment, Navratan Foundations feels honored to confer the Navratan Legend Award upon NEA.

Shri F. B. Nigam Memorial Award – 2016

Protecting one's own life is a natural instinct, but saving another person's precious life is an extraordinary act. You are a successful entrepreneur from Noida who turned the suffering of strangers into your own pain and set a new benchmark in fulfilling social responsibility.

Learning from a tragic road accident incident, five years ago you undertook the mission of providing free ambulance services to ensure that victims receive timely medical treatment. Today, through Sadbhavana Seva Sansthan, you are operating nearly 200 ambulances across six states, working tirelessly day and night to provide timely medical assistance and saving thousands of lives.

Shri Anil Singh, for your unprecedented contribution, dedication, and commitment in the field of social healthcare...

Shri F. B. Nigam Memorial Award – 2016

We feel proud to honor Shri Anil Singh with the Shri F. B. Nigam Memorial Award – 2016, along with a cash prize of ₹21,000/- and a ceremonial stole.

Navratan Shyam Sunder Goel Memorial Award – 2016

A self-motivated, result-oriented, and renowned management expert, you have been like a lifeline for differently-abled patients. Through your capable leadership and extensive network, and via the Center for Empowerment and Initiative, you have infused new energy into the lives of nearly 10,000 differently-abled individuals.

Over the past four years, your organization has conducted more than 52 camps across six states, providing free artificial limbs, hand-operated tricycles, and wheelchairs to persons with disabilities.

During the last 15 years, through your tireless efforts, nearly 15,000 patients from all castes and religions have received excellent medical treatment free of cost, giving them a new lease on life.

Shri R. M. Sanjeevi, in appreciation of your selfless service and remarkable efforts in the field of disability healthcare, we feel honored to present you the Navratan Shyam Sunder Goel Memorial Award – 2016, along with a cash prize of ₹11,000/- and a ceremonial stole.

Navratan Sardar Bhag Singh Memorial Award – 2016

You have been among the leading social activists in India dedicated to women's empowerment. Your efforts in the formation of several national and international institutions, including the National Commission for Women, and your advocacy for 33% reservation for women in Parliament and State Assemblies, as well as campaigns against social evils such as dowry and the Devadasi system, have earned immense appreciation both nationally and internationally.

A film based on your research against the Devadasi practice, "Giddh", was honored with the Silver Lotus President's Award. At this stage of your life, you continue to work tirelessly with several reputed institutions in India and abroad for the rights and empowerment of women.

Mrs. (Dr.) Jyotsna Chatterjee, drawing inspiration from your foundational work and lifelong dedication to women's empowerment, we feel proud to honor you with the Navratan Sardar Bhag Singh Memorial Award – 2016, along with a cash prize of ₹11,000/- and a ceremonial stole.

Navratan Smt. Chandra Devi Memorial Award – 2016

Despite losing your eyesight and facing personal hardships, you have remained committed to providing medical assistance to the needy. With your personal resources and without institutional support, you have facilitated medical treatment for hundreds of patients over the past two decades. Deeply moved by your efforts, society respectfully refers to you as "Mother Teresa."

Mrs. Kusum Singh, we salute your selfless sacrifice, dedication, and sense of duty, and feel honored to present you the Navratan Smt. Chandra Devi Memorial Award – 2016, along with a cash prize of ₹11,000/- and a ceremonial stole.

Navratan Shri Ram Anugrah Narayan Memorial Women Empowerment Award – 2016

For several decades, you have been guiding underprivileged children toward the right path during the most formative years of their lives. Since your childhood, you have felt deep concern for children who, due to deprivation, are unable to progress and often drift toward wrong paths.

Through Sankalp India Charitable Trust, you have provided expert counseling to more than 10,000 children, enabling them to grow into confident, cultured, and self-reliant individuals. Through financial assistance, visual study projects, and other initiatives, you have shown students a new and inspiring direction. Your efforts for other neglected sections of society through government and non-government organizations are equally commendable.

Mrs. Rekha Sharma, for your dedication, perseverance, and extensive social service in shaping a brighter future for children, we proudly honor you with the Navratan Shri Ram Anugrah Narayan Memorial Women Empowerment Award – 2016, along with a cash prize of ₹11,000/- and a ceremonial stole.

Smt. Prakash Devi Memorial Award – 2016

For more than a decade, you have worked tirelessly to address issues such as illiteracy, gender discrimination, and substance abuse. Associated with Navjyoti India Foundation, you have implemented several comprehensive action plans in the social and environmental sectors and achieved significant milestones through your effective leadership.

You are an accomplished, talented, and eloquent speaker who has addressed numerous national and international forums on socially significant issues. Your work has received widespread appreciation in national and international publications.

Mrs. Chandni Bedi, in recognition of your dedicated efforts for the marginalized sections of society and for highlighting their issues at national and international platforms, we feel honored to present you the Smt. Prakash Devi Memorial Award – 2016, along with a cash prize of ₹11,000/- and a ceremonial stole.

Dedication – 2016

Smt. Sonia Kohli Memorial Social Cooperation Navratan Award – 2016

Shri Anoop Khanna (Dadi Ki Rasoi)

Through the commendable initiative Dadi Ki Rasoi, thousands of laborers are provided meals at a highly affordable cost. This remarkable campaign has brought meaningful social change and has become a model of humanitarian service. With dedication and commitment, you have accomplished a task that only a few individuals dare to undertake.

Shri Anoop Khanna, we feel honored to decorate you with the Smt. Sonia Kohli Memorial Social Cooperation Award – 2016, along with a ceremonial stole.

Shri Deepak Gaur (Vriksh Purush – “Tree Man”)

With extraordinary determination, you have taken a pledge to protect and nurture trees, contributing tirelessly toward making the earth greener. Whether at public events or personal initiatives, you actively distribute and plant saplings, inspiring others to join the environmental movement.

Your efforts have earned you the title “Tree Man,” a recognition reportedly appreciated even by former President A. P. J. Abdul Kalam.

Shri Deepak Gaur, we feel proud to honor you with the Smt. Sonia Kohli Memorial Social Cooperation Award – 2016, along with a ceremonial stole.

Navratan Award – 2016

Dr. T. N. Dudha

For your dedicated service in the field of healthcare and your continuous efforts for the welfare of patients and their families, we feel privileged to honor you with the Navratan Award – 2016.

Mrs. Harkirat Chaudhary

For your active role in women’s awareness and social upliftment initiatives, and for your persistent efforts toward community welfare, we take pride in presenting you with the Navratan Award – 2016.

Mrs. Aarti Sharma

Through your initiatives aimed at making Noida a better place and your efforts against child labor and for the development of the girl child, you have rendered commendable social service.

We are honored to present Mrs. Aarti Sharma with the Navratan Award – 2016, along with a ceremonial stole.

Mrs. Maya Devi

For your dedicated efforts toward supporting economically weaker sections of society and working for their upliftment, you are hereby honored with the Navratan Award – 2016
